ORDER OF WORSHIP | MAY 13, 2018

Prelude

"You Are Mine"

Victoria Walker, pianist

arr. Lloyd Larson

Welcome to The Peoples Church!

Rev. Betsy Aho

Worship is both personal and communal, formal and informal, intimate and casual. Here at The Peoples Church, we recognize that people come to worship God in both joy and pain, faith and doubt, with laughter and with tears. Our worship tries to reflect a desire both for meditation and celebration. Please know you are invited to participate in any and all ways you feel led. Our songs, prayers, words and actions are the works of imperfect people trying to worship a perfect God.

Call to Worship

Leader: As we are called to worship today, we remember that when God came to live among us in the person of Jesus, most did not recognize him.

People: Might our faith reveal Jesus to us.

Leader: We open our eyes to see Christ's glory.

People: We open our ears to hear Christ's wisdom.

Leader: We open our hands to offer our gifts.

People: We open our mouths to sing Christ's praises.

Leader: We open our hearts to offer our love.

People: Let us worship God together.

Prayer of Confession

Rev. Drew Filkins

We want to be fountains of hope for others, God of glory, but people find only our hardened hearts. We would like to be transformed people, but our stubborn pride prevents us from bending a knee to you. We long to stand with those who are in need, but our selfishness keeps our backs rigid in judgment. Forgive us, God who came down to us. Humble us, that we might be true servants to the broken and lost. Split open our frozen hearts, that compassion might flow freely to those who are hurting. Fill our minds with the presence of your Spirit, that we might learn how to follow Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, into that kingdom of grace and hope. Amen.

(During the pastoral prayer there will be a time to offer prayers of joy and concern, voiced aloud or silently for and on behalf of others)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

WELCOME REV. CASE VAN KEMPEN, INTERIM SENIOR PASTOR!

The Council of Elders voted unanimously to approve the Interim Search Committee's recommendation for Interim Senior Pastor on April 24, 2018. Please join us in welcoming Rev. Cornelis H.J. Van Kempen!

When someone asks Case Van Kempen if he was born in a barn, he always answers yes, and then says, "Only it was spelled differently." Case was born in the town of Baarn, in the province of Utrecht, the Netherlands, emigrating to the United States as an infant with his family in 1956. Upon arriving in the states, his name was spelled differently, too. The nickname for Cornelis in Dutch is "Kees," but at the westside terminals in Manhattan, this became "Case."

Case attended Seymour Christian School and Ottawa Hills High School in Grand Rapids, Michigan, then attended Hope College in Holland, graduating with a degree in philosophy in 1977. From there he went on to Wayne State University Law School. It was while there that he heard the call to ministry, and enrolled in Western Theological Seminary.

Since Case had never intended to be a seminarian, he needed to take a crash course in Biblical Greek, which is where he met his wife, Leigh (Boelkins). She was also a student in the summer Greek course, and after a brief courtship, they were married in 1981.

After graduating, Case and Leigh moved to the Clymer Hill Reformed Church in Clymer, New York, then to Union Reformed Church in Franklin Lakes, New Jersey, and from there back to Holland, to serve the Maplewood Reformed Church. While in New Jersey, Leigh was ordained to chaplaincy, serving as the multi-faith chaplain for Northwest Bergen Hospice. She is currently the chaplain for the Resthaven Care Community in Holland, Michigan, a position she has held for 17 years.

After ten years at Maplewood, Case took the training for interim ministry, and has served 15 different congregations in three different denominations all over the upper Midwest. He has also written several books and Bible study guides, all for Faith Alive Christian Publishing: Hard Questions People Ask About the Christian Faith; Daniel: Daring Faith for Dangerous Times; and I, II, III John: Living in the Light of Love.

Case and Leigh have three adult children, all married, and four grandchildren. Case and Leigh make their home just south of Holland, Michigan, in Laketown Township.

Rev. Van Kempen's first service with us will be on Sunday, June 10, 2018 and he will begin full time on Monday, June 18, 2018.
